GETTING TO VENICE

- By Air

Marco Polo international airport is the third Italian airport, it has daily flight to/from most European cities as well as connections with USA and AE. www.veniceairport.it

The city centre is easily reached from the airport using public transport either on land or using the navigation system. Alilaguna is the boat system which connects the airport with San Marco; from San Marco you then make your way to San Zaccaria boat stop to take line 20 to San Servolo. www.alilaguna.it

ATVO is the bus which connects the airport (from outside the arrivals area) to Piazzale Roma in about 20 minutes. Buses leave every half an hour. www.atvo.it.

ACTV – line 5 bus 5 This public bus service connects the airport with Piazzale Roma in about 25 minutes. www.actv.it.

Private taxis are also available, it takes 15 minutes to get to Piazzale Roma. Once you reach Piazzale Roma you can easily start your tour of Venice on foot or by waterbus.

- By Train

Venice S.Lucia station is connected with the major Italian cities. Milan is reached in 2h30, Rome in 3h45, Florence in 2h. See information and timetable at www.trenitalia.com

- By Car

Venice is connected with the Italian Motorway net by the A4 Motorway. Please note that cars are not allowed in Venice and in San Servolo. All cars must be parked at the Piazzale Roma or Tronchetto car parks. See information on routes and traffic on www.autostrade.it

GETTING TO SAN SERVOLO ISLAND FROM VENICE CITY CENTRE

The island is easily reached with the public transport system of ACTV using line 20 from San Zaccaria - monument stop (every 30-40 minutes, trip takes 10 minutes). Line 20 Timetable:
